Dear Families,

OH WHAT A NIGHT AND DAY!

I am still smiling as I think back to the amazing day and night that took place in our school on Sunday 7th June!

The St Joseph’s Community Family Fair was a resounding success, thanks to:

- the immeasurable effort of our passionate, dedicated, and time-generous committee: Tracey Bodley, Naomi Robson, Kim McClure, Julie Landrigan, Alanna Kinsella, Yasmin Trotter, Martina Keary, Clayton Brady and Megan Woolley
- our sponsors who donated so generously,
- our dads and friends who helped set up and clean up on the day
- our parents who volunteered time, desserts, plants, books and garage sale goods and
- our extended community who turned out in droves!

I have heard nothing but praise from all areas of the community. As I wandered around during the afternoon and evening, I marvelled at how well the whole Fair had been organised, right down to the last detail – the food, the entertainment, the stalls, the rides, the raffles and the culmination of those magnificent fireworks.

THANK YOU AND CONGRATULATIONS TO EVERYONE INVOLVED, FOR BRINGING US LAUGHTER, JOY, FUN, MUSIC, SCRumptious FOOD, A FIREWORKS SPECTACULAR AND GOOD TIMES WITH FAMILY AND FRIENDS.
